

INTRODUCTION

The residency program is a dedicated season of training designed to prepare you for the ministry God is calling you to. Residencies can be 12, 18, or 24 months in length. Residents will focus their energy in a particular ministry area but will receive a broad range of experience in all aspects of church leadership. Each ministry residency is built around the candidate to help them achieve their ministry goals.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Evaluated, practical ministry experience
- Theological development and sharpening
- Focused leadership training
- Opportunities to lead special projects and initiatives
- Outside opportunities including conferences, events, and conventions
- Invitation to staff and leadership meetings
- A dedicated ministry mentor
- Opportunity to earn seminary credit

MINISTRY FOCUSES

- Kids
- Students
- College
- Groups
- Worship
- Church planting

COMPENSATION

Residents receive a monthly stipend provided by the church. For those who need additional funds to make the residency feasible, support raising training and resources are available.

HOUSING

In some cases, Christ Community can offer housing for ministry residents. Please speak with a pastor if this is something you desire.

SEMINARY TRACK

Residents pursuing theological education can earn seminary credit at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (SBTS) or the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary (SEBTS) during their time at Christ Community. Residents must be enrolled and must cover the cost of the classes. Additional assignments will be required for Residents on the Seminary Track.

SBTS students can earn up to 18 hours of credit. SEBTS students can earn up to 36 hours of credit.

HOW TO APPLY

Those interested in the Residency Program at Christ Community should visit christcommunity.com/residencies to complete the application.